Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy for rheumatism, the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. n6tf

Tobacco Users Smile Sometimes

when told that tobacco hurts them: their wives never do, because shattered nerves, weak eyes, chronic catarrh and lost man-hood, tells the story. If your husband uses tobacco, you want him to quit, post yourself about No-to-bac the wonderful, harmless, guaranteed tobacco habit cure, by sending for our little book titled: "Don't Tobacco Spit and smoke your life away," mailed free. Drug Stores generally sell No-to-bac. The Sterling Remedy Co., Indiana Mineral Springs, Indiana. j19tf

ALL SORTS.

Spring was put back a day or two yesterday.

Holbrook made 48 at the target yesterday.

There will be a special meeting of the Carson Guards tonight.

Don't overlook the pie social tonight; it will be a rare treat.

Mrs. J. Morris of Empire is very ill, and not expected to live.

The comps. in the State Printing Office were let out yesterday.

Mrs. W. M. Cary and son departed for San Francisco last evening.

Supt. Carney reports eighteen people at the Poor Farm—three of them women.

Mrs. D. E. Williams of the Genoa Courier, is on a visit to friends in Stockton.

L. B. Ayer of Sacramento the Chinese Registry Agent, is at the Arlington.

Ben Tremblay and Tom Brannan started for Buckeye yesterday on a prospecting trip.

The sports are taking a lively interest in the Turner-Walker contest booked for the 4th.

The despatches say an attempt was made to assassinate Gladstone. The report is not credited.

Joe Bush arrived in Carson yesterday morning from Sausalito. He will leave for Milpetas this evening.

Tom Rodgers is in Carson. He says last Winter was the hardest he ever experienced at Lake Tahoe; the whisky supply gave out.

The APPEAL is always pleased to have its friends hand us in any local items or personals and shall cheerfully make room for their publication.

The Journal says that Oliver Goldsmith wrote "Man wants but little here below, AND wants that little long." The APPEAL is of the opinion that "NOR wants that little long" is the way he wrote it.

Cattle shipment from Reno to California yesterday were as follows: G. W. Humphrey one carload to Truckee; Louis Dean one carload to Stockton; J. S. Wheeler six cars to San Francisco; J. W. Slavin two cars to Oakland; and J. F. Hayes six carloads to Oakland.—Journal

An essay written by a fourteen-year-old girl who is in the graduating class of the Truckee school, received the second prize in the Examiner contest. The prize was $15 which she has received. Her name is Nettie and she is the daughter of C. F. McGlashan.

Nick Long, a sporting correspondent of San Francisco, published something that ex-Manager Harrison of the Pacific Athletic Club took exception to. Harrison met Long on the street and administered a knock-out blow to the latter. Such a proceeding cannot reflect anything but discredit upon Harrison, for Long is a small man and well along in years, while Harrison is much larger and younger.

George Hood, who has a large sheep range near Fountain ranch, near Ukiah, has taught his sheep to herd evenings for salt on a large bald knoll on the range, and around this knoll at intervals of several hundred yards lighted lanterns have been suspended from poles each evening, and in order to make the scheme entirely effective as light to coyotes it was only necessary every few evenings to change the positions of the several lights in the circle, no matter how trifling the change. In this manner Mr. Hood saved his lambs from coyotes, while his next range neighbor, who took no such precaution, counts his loss by hundreds.

Death of George Cottrell.

George Cottrell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cottrell, died at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the family home, in the southern part of Carson, after a severe illness of typhoid fever. It is a sad blow to his parents, as he was their only son, and gave promise of being a brilliant and useful man. He was well liked by all who knew him, and his death will give a pang of regret to his many young friends.

Deceased was a native of New Jersey and aged 19 years and 9 months. The funeral will take place from the home of the parents, on Fifth street today at 2 o'clock p. m.

All kinds of stationery at John G. Fox's. Also books and jewelry. j29

Trans-Mississippi Congress.

Ogden, Utah, April 27.—Last evening was the battle of the giants. The great question of silver coinage was debated between Col. John P. Irish of California on the negative and Senator W. M. Stewart, Nevada's venerable silver patriarch, for the affirmative. Col. Irish spoke for an hour, and was followed by Nevada's silver champion.

Senator Stewart opened his speech at 9 o'clock and closed a few minutes after 11 p. m. He reviewed the history of money from the earliest day and declared that value was governed by limitation of quantity and desire to have. Thence he traced the history of money, gold and silver, to 1873. He reviewed the history of the demonetization and how it was done. He called it a crime and a fraud on the people and gotten through with a trick, and then explained the modus operandi. On the close a storm of applause greeted him. It was a grand and noble speech, the like of which has never been heard in Ogden.

To-day the Congress voted on the question, the result of the vote being as follows: Ayes—Nevada 10, Arkansas 10, Colorado 30, California 21, Idaho 12, Montana 16, Kansas 13, Nebraska 6, North Dakota 10, Washington 12, Oregon 13, New Mexico 10, Texas 12, Utah 30, Wyoming 18. Nays—California 4, Nebraska 6, Missouri 3, Texas 5, Wyoming 6, Washington 1. Total—ayes, 238; nays, 30.

Sullivan's Idea.

In the columns of the New York Sun John L. Sullivan has this to say of the Corbett-Mitchell:

"I am an American and I want to see the man of my own nationality win, but I think Corbett has undertaken a bigger contract than he realizes. Mitchell is fully as shifty a boxer as Corbett, and he can strike twice as hard a blow. I know just how hard each man can hit. Corbett didn't land a blow at New Orleans that would have fazed had I been in anything like my old-time form when I fought Charley Mitchell. I was simply all run down and Jim just hammered away until he had me wore out. The Corbett-Mitchell battle will be none of your little two-round contests, like the one fought at Coney Island on Monday night. These men know their business, and I look for a long battle of forty rounds or more. Corbett will try to keep landing that left of his in the stomach, but I don't think it will work with Mitchell to the same damaging extent as it did to me.

Funeral of Wm. M. Cary.

The remains of the late Wm. M. Cary arrived yesterday morning accompanied by the widow of deceased and his son Eugene. A delegation from Pinto Tribe No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, of which organization Mr. Cary was at one time a member, escorted the remains to the hearse and acted as pall-bearers. The remains were immediately taken to the cemetery, where the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hyslop. Many friends were present at the interment.

COAST NEWS.

June the 12th has been fixed for the trial of Heath and Polley, at Fresno, charged with the murder of McWhirter.

The University of the Pacific, at San Jose, has issued a challenge to Stanford to meet them in a debating contest before May 25th.

James Kennedy, and old-time logger of Fort Bragg, was killed by a log rolling on him. He was worth $15,000 in cash and lands, but had continued his work of sawing logs.

M. B. Perry, seventy-five years old, who ran a milk ranch near Los Gatos, tragically committed suicide on his wife's grave at Evergreen Cemetery by shooting himself through the head.

The kick of a female ostrich at the Fulton ostrich farm, near Pomona, broke the leg of John Lawrence, who was employed there. Recently the same ostrich in a fit of temper kicked down part of a heavy hemlock fence.

C. J. Diver, the young man who attempted suicide at Phoenix, A. T., and was afterwards judged insane and placed in the asylum, was a special agent for the Salvation Army, holding a commission from Ballington Booth. He had twenty-one half-fare tickets over various roads, traveling as a minister. His home is in Cleveland, Ohio.

Frank Ocampo, living near San Bernardino, charges his mother with assaulting him with a deadly weapon. Mrs. Ocampo states, however, that her son and his wife are desirous of getting her property, and that they came to her house when she was in bed and tore down a part of her house, throwing the furniture in the yard and tied her, hand and foot, and then hung her to a bedstead by one leg.

The Marshalship.

A double-barreled politician who is advocating the principles of the two goldbug parties, and therefore assumes to know what is going on in both, said evening before last: "Mr. Humphreys was successful in his contest for the marshalship over a Populist-Democrat of Carson, who was endorsed by the Weaver-Democratic committee and nearly all of the leading Democrats of that ilk of the western part of the State of Nevada."

Last night another shot from the same barrel was fired off and the declaration made with emphasis that there were three other candidates for the marshalship besides Mr. Humphreys, one of them "S. H. Day, a straight-out Democrat and a most worthy and popular gentleman." If this is true it shows that straight-out and most worthy and popular Democrats are no better off when the spoils are being divided than the wicked and presumably unpopular Populist or Silver men.—Journal.

Stockholders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Red Oak Mining Company will be held at the office of the Company in M. Cohn's store, Carson street, Carson City, Nev., on Monday, May 1st, 1893, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., of said day.
